Promotional Handouts for Exhibitors

General Information

SORSI greatly appreciates all the support from its exhibitors at our meetings and conferences. With your paid registration to the event, we offer to include one Free promotional piece for your organization in our seminar handouts as follows:

- One electronic promotional piece to be emailed prior to the conference to all currently registered participants.

Please email electronic promotional item(s) to Denise@sorsi.com. Please include in your subject line: Event name/year, promo material, company name. Please indicate in the email which piece is for distribution via email and which is to be included in the registration packet.

DEADLINE FOR ALL PROMOTIONAL MATERIALS: one month prior to the event arrival date.

Size Limitations

Reproductions will be limited to 250 MB per exhibitor. Depending on other presentations and the size of the seminar, accommodations may be able to be made for larger amounts of information. If you have a request for more space please contact the home office in advance to determine if such is available.

Copyright Considerations

Please do not submit any of your personal creations without appropriate copyright acknowledgments on the materials. This is simply the copyright symbol or the word copyright with the year and your name. If you do not want your materials altered, you may wish to submit them in a PDF format.

If you wish to allow your materials to be read and produced freely, please clearly state so somewhere on said materials.

SORSI strictly abides by all current copyright laws. Please refer to the SORSI official document concerning use of copyrights in our instructional sessions.
